TODAY: Donna McLaney Jones, President Alabama District Exchange Club

November 9, 2017

Donna McLaney-Jones presently works part-time for the Pike County Salvation Army. She received her MS Degree in special education from Troy University. She had previously worked in banking for 20 years.

Upon retiring from education she became active in several civic organizations. She has worked diligently over the last 10 years to give back to her community. She received the Book of Golden Deeds Award in 2015 and presently serves on the board of the American Heart Association, the Advisory Board for the Pike County Salvation Army, and the Troy Exchange Club's Board of Directors. She has two sons, Casey a graduate of Troy University and Paul, a UA graduate, and one grandson.

Chili Cookoff Update

The Chilihead Executive Committee, chaired by Glen Smith, convened at Glen's house on Tuesday, Oct 17 to plan for the Exchange Club's 12th Annual Great Tuscaloosa Chili Cookoff, which is set for Feb 10, 2018 at the Bryant Conference Center.

"The Chili Cookoff is about more than having fun," says Glen. "It's a serious endeavor to generate funds for the Club's important work in the region focusing on Child Abuse Prevention, Youth, Community, and Honoring America."

2018 Sponsors already committed include Regions; McAbee Construction; Alabama Power; Award Company of America; Sydney Cook & Associates; Laura Gregory, PC, Attorney at Law; Rhoda Smith; and Saluting America. Cookoff Teams committed include Regions, McAbee Construction, and Perennial Lawn Care. Exchangites are currently contacting Sponsor and Cook Team prospects and there is a high degree of confidence that our distinguished family of faithful supporters will remain intact as we work together to better serve our community.

The Club's website - tuscaloosaexchangeclub.org - has more information about the Exchange Club and the Chili Cookoff.
