TODAY: Tim Leopard UA Facilities Administration

Tim Leopard is the Associate Vice President for Construction and has been at The University since 2004, originally as a consultant. He began working directly with the University in 2006. He has been involved in construction for 30 years and has completed over $2.5 billion dollars of in place construction on projects including log cabins, automobile plants, luxury condominiums, numerous academic and educational projects, convention centers, and advanced treatment cancer centers.

Currently, Mr. Leopard oversees the campus construction program and is responsible for projects (inception through the warranty phase). He oversees that projects align with the campus master plan, incorporating program/user requirements, improving the living and learning environment for faculty and students, diminishing the impact of construction activities on the campus community, and providing that projects will have the lowest overall lifecycle cost to UA.

He is a graduate of Purdue University with a degree in Construction Management.

BIG DOE HUNT 2015

Exchange member Bev Leigh, ever active in the community, sends this note reminding us of tonight's event at Shelton State Community College, which is the culmination of a project to increase scholarship funds for its deserving students:

This is a fundraiser for the Shelton State Community College Foundation to fund scholarships for deserving students. There are a lot of Sponsors, both individuals and businesses who support the college. And to make this "interesting," hunters can purchase a $100 ticket that enables them to harvest a doe deer and possibly win $1000 in cash. The harvested deer must be weighed in at one of 8 deer processing stations across West Alabama. There is also an On Line Auction. The winners of both the auction AND the deer competition will be announced in the Atrium of Shelton State on Dec 17. -Bev

Whatcha Got to EXCHANGE

FROM ROBERT MORGAN

Proof that law can make anything tedious.
Here is "The Night Before Christmas," Legally Speaking:

Whereas, on or about the night prior to Christmas, there did occur at a certain improved piece of real property (hereinafter "the House") a general lack of stirring by all creatures therein, including, but not limited to a mouse. A variety of foot apparel, e.g. stocking, socks, etc., had been affixed by and around the chimney in said House in the hope and/or belief that St. Nick a/k/a/ St. Nicholas a/k/a/ Santa Claus (hereinafter "Claus") would arrive at sometime thereafter.

The minor residents, i.e. the children, of the aforementioned House were located in their individual beds and were engaged in nocturnal hallucinations, i.e. dreams, wherein vision of confectionery treats, including, but not limited to, candies, nuts and/or sugar plums, did dance, cavort and otherwise appear in said dreams.

Whereupon the party of the first part (hereinafter referred to as "I"), being the joint-owner in fee simple of the House with the parts of the second part (hereinafter "Mama"), and said Mama had retired for a sustained period of sleep. (At such time, parties were clad in various forms of headgear, e.g. kerchief and cap.) Suddenly, and without prior notice or warning, there did occur upon the unimproved property adjacent and appurtenant to said House, i.e. the lawn, a certain disruption of unknown nature, cause and/or circumstance.

The party of the first part did immediately rush to a window in the House to investigate the cause of such disturbance. At that time, the party of the first part did observe, with some degree of wonder and/or disbelief, a miniature sleigh (hereinafter "the Vehicle") being pulled and/or drawn very rapidly through the air by approximately eight (8) reindeer.

The driver of the Vehicle appeared to be and in fact was, the previously referenced Claus. Said Claus was providing specific direction, instruction and guidance to the reindeer and identified the animal co-conspirators by name: Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Donner and Blitzen (hereinafter "the Deer").

(Upon information and belief, it is further asserted that an additional co-conspirator named "Rudolph" may have been involved.)

The party of the first part witnessed Claus, the Vehicle and the Deer intentionally and willfully trespass upon the roofs of several residences located adjacent to and in the vicinity of the House, and noted that the Vehicle was heavily laden with packages, toys and other items of unknown origin or nature. Suddenly, without prior invitation or permission, either express or implied, the Vehicle arrived at the House, and Claus entered said House via the chimney.

Said Claus carried a large sack containing a portion of the aforementioned packages, toys, and other unknown items. He was smoking what appeared to be tobacco in a small pipe in blatant violation of local ordinances and health regulations.

Claus did not speak, but immediately began to fill the stocking of the minor children, which hung adjacent to the chimney, with toys and other small gifts. (Said items did not, however, constitute "gifts" to said minor pursuant to the applicable provisions of the U.S. Tax Code.) Upon completion of such task, Claus touched the side of his nose and flew, rose and/or ascended up the chimney of the House to the roof where the Vehicle and Deer waited and/or served as "lookouts." Claus immediately departed for an unknown destination. However, prior to the departure of the Vehicle, Deer and Claus from said House, the party of the first part did hear Claus state and/or exclaim: "Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night!" Or words to that effect.

-Respectfully Submitted, s./ The Grinch, Esq.
