TODAY: No Meeting

In Honor of Independence Day

As we celebrate the joys of the freedom in Independence Day, let us also remember its history and the people who fought for Independence Day. Known as the 4th of July, Independence Day is a federal holiday in the United States commemorating the adoption on July 4, 1776, of the Declaration of Independence, which declared independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain.

"The American Revolution was a beginning, not a consummation."

~Woodrow Wilson

"Freedom has its life in the hearts, the actions, the spirit of men and so it must be daily earned and refreshed – else like a flower cut from its life-giving roots, it will wither and die." ~Dwight D. Eisenhower

"Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it." ~Thomas Paine

"This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave." ~Elmer Davis

"Let freedom never perish in your hands." ~Joseph Addison

In the truest sense, freedom cannot be bestowed; it must be achieved.

~Franklin D. Roosevelt

"It is easy to take liberty for granted, when you have never had it taken from you." ~Author unknown

New Members Inducted to Club

Kathy Sullivan, recommended by Nan Glaus, and Ken Elmer, invited by Larry O'Neal, were formally welcomed into the club last week. Jon Hooks is also a new member, but was not at the meeting.

There was a problem with the picture that Nan made for the newsletter, but we will include bios and better pictures in a coming issue to introduce these new members.

Welcome to the club!
