The Club will present teddy bears to comfort children in crisis to local agencies and blue ribbons for child abuse prevention awareness for fire trucks again this year. We will also hear from:

Stephanie Covarrubia has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology, certification as an Infant, Toddler, and Family Specialist by the state of North Carolina, and teaching certification in Early Childhood Special Education in Tennessee. She has worked in early intervention for 27 years in both home- and center-based early intervention programs as a service coordinator, special instructor, and/or classroom teacher. She also served on the administrative team of a corporate child development center. She recently earned the First 5 Alabama® Endorsement for Culturally Sensitive, Relationship-focused Practice Promoting Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health® as an Infant Family Specialist.

Amy Crosby has a Bachelor of Science degree in Human Development and Family Studies with an additional concentration in Social Welfare and post graduate work in Human Development and Family Studies. She has worked with children and families in a variety of settings including prisons, schools, child care, and nonprofits for over 13 years.
